

Ian Glick QC
Chambers of Lord Grabiner QC
One Essex Court

Barrister
Date of Call: 1970
QC: 1987

SUMMARY

Ian Glick is a Queen's Counsel and arbitrator practising at One Essex Court. He has many years' experience of litigating complex commercial disputes and of acting as an arbitrator in ICC, LCIA and ad hoc arbitrations. He has also determined disputes acting as an expert.

Ian Glick was formerly standing junior counsel to the Department of Trade and Industry in export credit cases, and is a former Chairman of the Commercial Bar Association. He is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

ARBITRATION EXPERIENCE

Ian Glick has recently been appointed as an arbitrator in disputes:

- concerning the sale and purchase of shares in a Belize company (LCIA)

- under price fixing provisions for the sale of LNG (ad hoc)

- arising out of agreements between two major breweries, involving allegations of breach of contract, misrepresentation and bribery (ICC)

- concerning alumina supply contracts (LCIA)

- about the launch of a new brand of perfume (ICC)

- concerning the sale of steel scrap (ICC)

- concerning a joint venture in relation to credit cards (LCIA)

- concerning a contract for the repowering of power plants (ad hoc)

Ian Glick has also appeared as counsel in three recent leading English arbitration cases:

Lesotho Highlands Development Authority v. Impregilo SpA [2005] UKHL 43, concerning the powers of arbitrators; Law Debenture Trust Corporation v. Elektrim Finance BV and Ors [2005] EWHC 1412 (Ch), concerning the construction and validity of arbitration clauses and Econet Wireless Ltd v. Vee Networks Ltd [2006] EWHC 1568 (Comm) about interim injunctive relief from the court.